

IU MAURER SCHOOL OF LAW CLINICAL COURSES (as of March 2018)

CLINIC NAME AND COURSE NUMBER	COURSE DESCRIPTION	PROFESSOR(S)	METHOD OF APPLICATION	OTHER INFORMATION
COMMUNITY LEGAL CLINIC: Client Interviewing & Problem Solving #B688 Includes the DISABILITY LAW CLINIC .	Students provide legal representation in family, disability and estate planning matters, to clients while acting under the supervision of a licensed attorney. Students also work on legal projects with community partners. Students gain problem solving and practical client and litigation experience.	Earl Singleton Carwina Weng	Submit a statement of interest and current resume (no GPA or rank) to: singlet@indiana.edu & wengc@indiana.edu	3 students will handle full-representation family law matters. 3 Credits Class Time: M, T, W 10:55 - 11:50 am Background check required.
CONSERVATION LAW CLINIC #B558	Students work as clerks in Clinic matters that have included analysis of conservation related laws; development of and commenting on new administrative rules, drafting legislation; and litigation at administrative, trial and appellate levels.	William Weeks	Submit a statement of interest and current resume to: wwweeks@indiana.edu .	Preference given to students who have completed half of the required course work toward a degree, joint degree or students interested in enrolling in the Clinic for 2 consecutive semesters. 3 Credits Class Time: TH 4:30 - 5:30 pm
ENTREPRENEURSHIP LAW CLINIC #B561	Students serve as the primary casehandler for business matters such as financial planning, organization, licenses, agreements, regulatory & zoning compliance & intellectual property matters	Mark Need	Submit a current resume and a brief statement of interest to: needm@indiana.edu	Strongly suggested courses are Corporations, Corporate Taxation, Business Planning, or equivalents as determined by the Director. Open to 3Ls or 4th year JD/MBAs only. Background check required. 3 Credits Class Time: TU 4:30 - 6:30 pm
DOMESTIC RELATIONS MEDIATION #B563 (fall) and FAMILY AND CHILD MEDIATION CLINIC #B691 (spring)	DRM: Students learn to mediate family law cases and become eligible to register as domestic relations mediators in Indiana (a professional license). Prerequisite to FCMC #B691, which will next be offered in the spring 2019 semester. FCMC: Students mediate family law cases referred from the local courts. Students who take DRM are not required to take the FCMC.	Amy G. Applegate	DRM: No special requirements. FCMC: Submit a current resume and a brief statement of interest to: aga@indiana.edu .	DRM: Simulation course. Attendance in class is mandatory. 3 Credits Class Time: TH 8:30 am - 12:00 pm as well as the last 2 Friday mornings of the semester. FCMC: DRM is prerequisite. Other information TBD.
FEDERAL HABEAS #B564	Students work on active habeas corpus cases in the federal district courts and the 7th Circuit. After studying essential habeas rules and doctrines, students work with practitioners to analyze records of clients' state criminal convictions to identify potential meritorious claims, conduct discovery, investigative work, write motions, briefs and prepare for live hearings.	Seth Lahn Michael Ausbrook	Apply by permission of the instructors. Contact Seth Lahn: slahn@indiana.edu	2 Credits Class Time: TU, W 3:25 - 4:20 pm
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY CLINIC #B572	Students handle IP (trademarks, copyright, patents, etc.) needs of individual and organizational clients. The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office has certified the Clinic to handle both patent and trademark law.	Norm Hedges	Submit resume & statement of interest to: njhedges@indiana.edu	Strongly suggested courses include at least one of Patent Law, Trademark Law, or Survey of IP or equivalent experience. 3-4 Credits Class Time: TH 8:45 - 11:50 am Background check required.
NON-PROFIT LEGAL CLINIC #B537	Students engage in public interest lawyering through business & transactional work for nonprofit organizations. Students form new nonprofit entities; counsel clients looking to dissolve existing entities; draft contracts; provide basic tax advice; advise on governance, employment, communications, intellectual property, and compliance matters; provide general corporate support; and provide other transactional legal assistance as needed.	Jennifer Prusak	Submit brief statement of interest to: jsprusak@indiana.edu	Registration preference will be given to students who have taken corporations. 3 Credits Class Time: M, W 2:20 - 3:50 pm Background check required.
PROTECTIVE ORDER LITIGATION #B564	Students help clients of the law school's Protective Order Project (POP) seek relief from the courts. This casework enables students to examine, through first-hand experience, the civil legal systems response to sexual assault, stalking, and domestic and relationship violence.	Seth Lahn	Enrollment by permission of the instructor. Contact Seth Lahn: slahn@indiana.edu	Previous experience with POP or another organization or course focused on domestic violence or sexual assault is helpful. 3 Credits Class Time: TU 2:20 - 3:15