Dept. Course# Section# Course Name Cr Hr Instructor

Number of Law credit hours planned: _____

Please provide a short description of the course and your reasons for taking it, including its relevance to your career objectives:

(use back if necessary) Student Signature Date

Policy for taking courses outside the Law School:

1) The requested outside course must be deemed by the Law School to have significant intellectual challenge for a law student (i.e., most often a graduate course).

2) The course must be closely tied to the student's career goals or to his or her studies in the Law School.

3) The total number of non-law course credits must not exceed six (6) credit hours, including the potential credits of the course requested above.

4) There may be extra fees/tuition associated with adding a non-law class. See Catherine Matthews or Paul Leopold for more information.

5) Only IU Bloomington courses will be approved.

6) The course must not duplicate a course offered by the Law School or a course previously taken by the student.

7) Credit will be given for the hours earned and a grade of 'Pass' will be recorded upon receipt of evidence of satisfactory completion ("C" or higher) of the course.

8) Students are responsible for registering (or withdrawing) themselves for the non-law class. This may involve obtaining instructor and/or departmental authorization for the course.

The above request for Law School credit for a non-law course has been approved.
